Brilliant Buttons – a coach in your pocket

Brilliant Buttons has simplified leadership coaching making it affordable, engaging & fun. Our platforms, tools, and methodology have transformed stagnant leadership programs into timeless, dynamic learning experiences to accelerate business growth.

We help companies to elevate their employee value position to attract suitable talent, retain and upskill their existing people by giving each person in their organization a “coach in their pocket”.

Our user-centric approach helps people grow, learn and develop at their own pace, in their own time, and when they need the support the most - providing continuous people development.

Brilliant Buttons is a company registered in Belfast, Ireland. Our team works fully remotely.

We would like you to join our internship program!

If you are passionate about video editing, preparing engaging content, and eager to learn about AI and grow professionally at the same time, then BB Internship is the right choice for you!

We are looking for Interns with excellent English knowledge, happy to learn and share their ideas.

Your engagement is fully remote.

Be part of a brilliant team that creates a future!
