

Brave Giant is a development and publishing studio, working on premium quality games for PC, Mac, iOS, Android and Windows Store. Based in Serbia, Novi Sad. We developed and published numerous games world-wide in more than 10 different languages and across all relevant gaming markets.

Building strong partnerships over the years with world's most recognized video-games companies, Brave Giant reached millions of satisfied players all over the globe, delivering them an unique and exciting games and game-play experience.

UNITY Programmer

Job location: Novi Sad

Requirements:

- Appreciation for modern agile development
- Published or was involved with publishing a game on the App Store or Google Play
- Experience with version control software and code review based workflows
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to work autonomously
- High levels of initiative and self-motivation
- Proficient in C# programming language
- Strong knowledge of gameplay programming in Unity
- Good understanding of object oriented development
- Good debugger and problem solver
- Knowledge of algorithms, design patterns and structures
- Devotion to writing elegant and functional code
- Ability to work in large cross-functional team

We offer:

- Long term employment opportunity for best performing candidates
- Performing services for a multinational company
- Dynamic and responsible position
- Chance for a professional and personal development
- Advancement opportunity
- Paid training